YOUR WORLD IS MY WORLD (1).

Once more we meet, my own belov'd,
Within this garden fair,
I seek your heart as mine, dear one,
Your path thro' life to share;
If shadows rise to cloud our dreams, love,
With you would I abide:
Thro' all the years that are to come, love,
My world is at thy side.

YOUR WORLD IS MY WORLD (2).

Your world is my world all the years to be,
Thro' sunshine or shadow, love, I'll live for thee;
Whate'er the sorrow, whate'er the pain,
Your world is my world, love, once again!

YOUR WORLD IS MY WORLD (3).

The parting years are clouds gone by,
Bright sunshine fills the skies,
The fleeting hours have bid me come,
Bring gladness to your eyes;
Oh! happy moments come again, love!
We live just as of yore,
Our hearts in sympathy to dwell, love,
Together evermore.

HISTORY AND TRADITIONS.

Formed in 1689 the regiment proceeded to Holland in the following year. It took part in the succeeding campaigns including the battles of Steinkirk, and Landen, the siege of Namur, and numberless other engagements down to the peace of Ryswick in 1697. To Holland again in 1701 and took part under Marlborough in no less than 34 successful battles and sieges, including Blenheim, Ramillies, Oudenarde and Malplaquet. It was in Holland again in 1743 and took part in the battle of Dettingen, the last occasion on which a British King commanded on the field of battle, and which was won against every adverse circumstance. It rendered signal service in the Maroon War in Jamaica in 1795, and in 1804 was present at the capture of Surinam from the Dutch. It took part in the Iaxat Expedition in 1892, and in 1895 in the Chitral Expedition including the storming of the Malakand Pass. During the South African War the regiment took a gallant part in some of the hardest fought engagements of the campaign.
